TRACI J. RYDALCH
DEPUTY TO THE COMMANDER
TOOELE ARMY DEPOT (TEAD)

Ms. Traci J. Rydalch serves as the Deputy to the Commander for Tooele Army Depot.

In this position, Rydalch is the senior civilian leader responsible for ensuring that the operation of the depot meets the readiness needs of the U.S. Army and the Department of Defense. These operation duties include the storage, issue, and demilitarization of conventional ammunition for all U.S. military services; design, fabrication and fielding of Ammunition Peculiar Equipment; and provision of the full range of Base Operations services. In addition, Rydalch is responsible for oversight of depot operations at Hawthorne Army Depot, Nevada.

Prior to accepting the position of the Deputy to the Commander in August 2021, Rydalch served as TEAD's Director of Program, Planning and Control from 2020 to 2021, and as TEAD's Chief of Resource Management from 2015 to 2020.

Rydalch graduated from Utah State University with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Finance and Economics.
